BRAVY'S
ORICALS

PARTY HOGS — '84!!

Heather's kinda kinky!

Lori, Sandi, and Julie going punk!

Eric Lincoln, why that look?

Shane Nickelson's giving 'em the plan to escape!

Who's that behind those Foster Grants?

Jay Noschese, why so enthused?

I say we party all night long!

Criminal Line-Up!

Wow! Look at those legs!

Tami Bulebush has got the beat!

Paula and Michelle looking their best!

Wendy and Julie look cool!

Troy and Chris put their best foot fo.

Robin Goodman's flippin' out!

The Frau doesn't interest Bobby and Brian!

Making Gondola Pizza Boats.

Joe Hudock — cute as usual!

The crews are going crazy!

Greg's struttin' his stuff!

Vicki posing for the Big Time!

Mrs. Michaux's going nuts!

Ben is giving Dawn some good advice!

Dave Clark's caught in the act!

There are times in life
when we ask ourselves,
"Where am I going from here?
What am I hoping the future will bring?"
And the answer is seldom clear . . .

But with your youth . . .
with trust in God
And with strength
of purpose, too,
The future holds many wonderful dreams . . .
May they one and all come true.

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL

Let the good times roll
Let them knock you around
Let the good times roll
Let them make you a clown
Let them leave you up in the air
Let them brush your rock and roll hair

Let the good times roll
Let the good times roll
Let the good times roll

Let the stories be told
Let them say what they want
Let the photos be old
Let them show what they want
Let them leave you up in the air
Let them brush your rock and roll hair

Let the good times roll
Let the good times roll
Won't 'cha let the good times roll

If the illusion is real
Let them give you a ride
If they've got thunder appeal
Let them be on your side
Let them leave you up in the air
Let them brush your rock and roll hair

Let the good times roll
Won't 'cha let the good times roll
Let the good times roll

The Valley Girl Homecoming Court

On Tuesday, Sept. 27th, the class of 1984 elected Lachelle Cable, Lorraine Eutsey, Lauren Locke, Kara Sepp, and Beth Smithnosky to be their 1983 Homecoming Court. On October 28th Kara Sepp was crowned the Homecoming Queen.

Homecoming events were sponsored by the Pro-Attitude Club. Pro-Attitude's goal is to promote school spirit. The bridge on which the court stood was a present from the Pro-Attitude sophomores. The float on which the court rode was a present from the juniors.

The Pro-Attitude Club was sponsored by Mrs. Bryan and it's officers were Beth Smithnosky, pres.; Crista Cave, vice-pres.; Lachelle Cable, Secretary; and Annette Stevenson, Treasurer.

The JV Cheerleaders strut their stuff.

The 1983 Cinderella Ball
Stairway to the Stars

Tri-Hi Y once again took on the task of organizing the annual Cinderella Ball which was held on November 23, 1983. The semi-formal, girl-asks-boy dance featured the band 'Darkstar' from Fairchance, PA. The 1983 theme "Stairway to the Stars" took shape in the lobby, which featured a spiral staircase leading up to a 'sky' of brilliant silver stars.

The people behind the scenes on the many Cinderella committees were as follows:
Lobby — Karen Szabo, Angie Ferencuha
Publicity — Vicki Blocker, Geri Feniello
Entertainment — Mary Kay Martray, Cindy Kokot
Program — Michelle Warrick, Kathy Onusko
Tickets — Susan Metsger, Donna Upton
Coronation — Darla Brothers, Bobby Peshko

Connellsville Area High School students elected a stunning Winter Sports Court on February 1, 1984. Senior nominees for queen were Erica DeAngelis, Deanne Mancuso, and Jodi Rosman. Junior attendants were Dawn Stepanic and Vicky Curry. Sophomore attendants were Kym Breakiron and Dina Orlando. The court was presented during a pep rally on February 10th at which time Deanne Mancuso, escorted by Mike Maruca, was announced 2nd runner-up. Erica DeAngelis, escorted by J. T. Galik, then took the floor as 1st runner-up. Jodi Rosman, on the arm of Mark Blackstone, was crowned as our 1984 Winter Sports Queen by Carol Albright, 1st runner-up of 1983. Dina was paired with Bob Malia and Kym followed with Mark Holden. Dawn walked to center court accompanied by Dave Dean and Jim Maddis lent his arm to Vicky for the presentation.

The pep rally featured musical selections by the marching band and flying toilet paper donated by an anonymous but enthusiastic student. The court was again presented that night during a half time ceremony at the basketball game. Congratulations and best wishes to the girls and their escorts.

You Were Born on

A quiet and sincere science teacher cannot get funds to equip his classroom. Therefore, he secretly becomes a wild astrologer winning himself fans, the needed money and the girl he loves. Could it be Mr. Zundel? Mr. Haines? Is Miss Baker "the girl he loves?" No, no and no. The quiet science teacher is the central character of "You Were Born on a Rotten Day," this year's senior class play.

Mr. William Colvin has been directing CAHS class plays for ten years. In the past large numbers of enthusiastic seniors would audition and Mr. Colvin tried to select plays with a cast of 18-35 players. This year was a record low for auditions. Feeling that this is a reflection on the whole school, Mr. Colvin said, "There are too many things to do today. With nine thousand activities to choose from our students don't have time." He added, "Another reason could be that people don't have an open mind. They assume that if they haven't heard of the play or musical it won't be any good. That's stupid."

Rather than make next year's play a Junior/Senior play (as he threatened to do this year) Mr. Colvin says, "Next year's play will involve a smaller cast. It's much easier finding good plays with casts of twelve to sixteen people."

According to everyone involved the play was sure to appeal to a large audience. There is a lot of interest in astrology today. The play is written like a television situation comedy. It's contemporary and easy to understand. The characters are human, definitely human. Going on, Mr. Colvin says with a smile, "I'd like to play Claude. It's a good role because it takes two different personalities."

The cast of "You Were Born on a Rotten Day" featured Joe Argiro as Allan; Linda Bell, Voice; Kelly Casini, Mrs. Banks; Darla Code, Miss Masters; Michelle Cramer, Miss Marks; Ben Daniels, Professor; Kim DeMarco, Freda; Sherry Domer, Vera; Jim Gallagher, Coach; Desiree Johnson, Alma; Gina Laverdi, Brigid; Sam Leonard, Councilman; Kathi Little, Yvonne; Cindy McCutcheon, Helen; Mimi Nepa, Hope; Patty Omatick, Marsha; Tonya Rosenberry, Voice; Tammy Ross, Mrs. Cannon; Frances Sansig, Muriel; Dawn Siebert, Connie; Lisa Soisson, Georgia; Julie Small, Mrs. Ames; Patsy Tinker, Diane; Jon Tristani, Harry; Jeff Wallace, Claude; Laura Whelan, Miss Johnson; Lillie Wilson, Jan and Susan Zelmore as Lie. Maurita DeCara, Lori Frantz and Joyce Scolnick are student directors.

The play was performed at 8:15 on November 17 and 18. Mr. Colvin felt that students at CAHS should see "Rotten Day" because, "It's a live theatrical experience, it's funny and it's a cheap date. Where else can you go for four bucks?" (Admission is $2.00 a person).

ANNUAL BLOOD CHALLENGE

by: MaryBeth Faris

Once again the American Red Cross has been to Connellsville Area with the bloodmobile. Ours was the first school in Fayette County to join in what was later to become the battle of the blood challenge with Brownsville Area High School.

This year Brownsville edged to victory with 112 units or 58% of their seniors compared to 247 units and 47% of Connellsville seniors. Even though their percentage was higher, our total was over double theirs in number. These units represent the special gift of life to the ailing in our county hospitals. Each volunteer senior can feel a pride in responding to this vital need for blood.

Senior Party

Mr. Hickle and children, Frances, Maurita and Maurice.

Debbie Domaracki and Susie Columbus. Which one can rock to the rhythm of a groovy beat?

Hey Now!

The official senior party was held on Monday night, May 21, 1984 in the CAHS Cafeteria. Music was provided by Gary Horewitzs' "Sound Stage." Everyone had a wild and crazy time.

Robin "Hannah-Banana" Hannah and Rich "Zick" Truxel watch the cameraman boogie with camera.

Doug Pirl, Scott Gildroy, Jimmy Grimm, Jimmy Gallagher, Dave Petrowski, and Bart Kaylor (also known as the sexy six) are having a wild time, just look at them.

Julie Small "punks" the night away.

Sherri Abdallah, Shelia Thompson, Deanna Miller, John Gaudiello and Tammie Hough watch something exciting in the middle of the floor. Wonder what it is.

Robin Shearer, Gary Dye, Heather Konrad, Lee Cornell, Scott Robbins, Maurita DeCara and Frances Sansig get crazy at the table while drinking POP!

Let the Good Times Roll

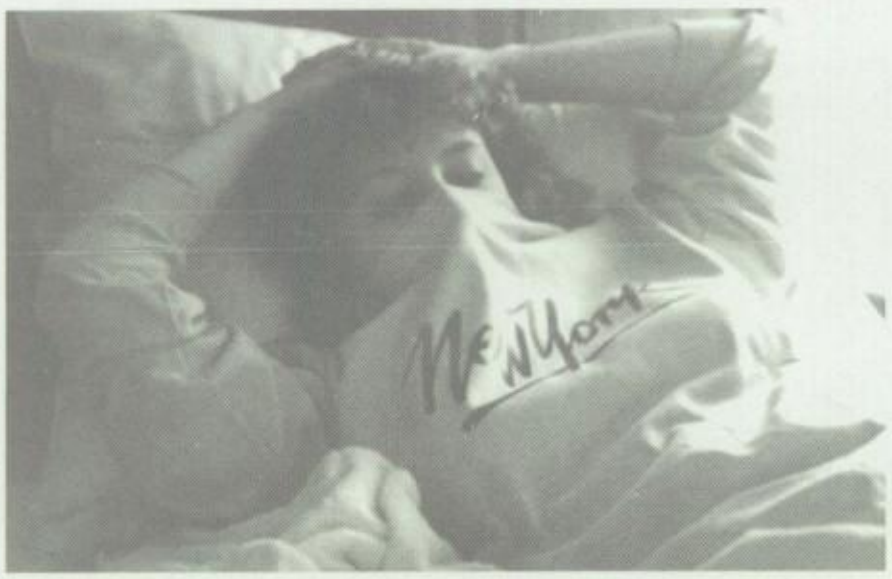
Everybody watches Andrea Mock while Rob Hooper says, "Wow man this is fun."

Greg Stimmel, Cheryl Lewis, and friends are having a "boogie" of a night.

Senior

Senior Class Play stars smile for the cameraman. Say Cheese . . .

John Rugg gets tough in the big city, only to impress the girls.



No, Erinn, nothing exciting in your shirt this week.

Cathy, Andrea and Susie get high on life.

Jodie, Kara, Laura, Tammie and Cindy having some fun with the cameraman. Oh no!

Snap Shots

Watch Lisa, if anyone can she can.

Oh no, Connellsville women let loose in a New York hotel room.

Jodie, Annette, Jim = Triple Trouble

Not us, Mr. Policeman. We're good kids, just look at our faces.

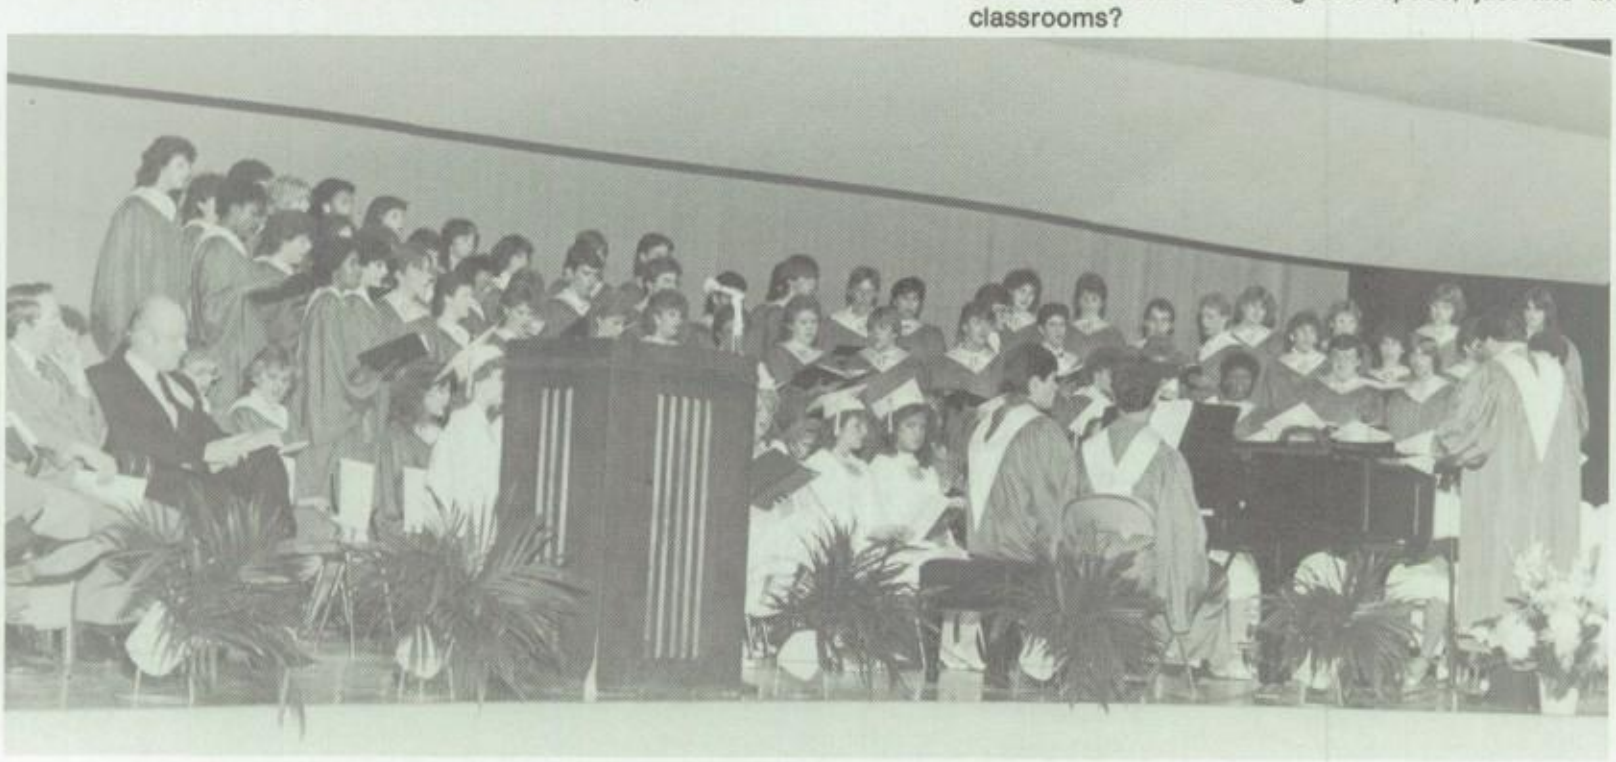
Debbie trying to blow her horn, but ready to laugh.

Jim pinches Cathy and look how happy she is! But Gina and Debbie are jealous.

Vespers

Russ, Scott, Robbie, Brent and Shawn have a rap with Mr. Hickle.

Are all the seniors staring into space, just like they are back in the classrooms?



Concert Choir and crew sing their hearts out for this exciting event.

Vicki Stamates and her friends are talking about the famous POD class. Yeah.

There they are, some of the guys from the class of 1984. They never thought this day would come.

Commencement
Friday, June 1st, 1984

Maurita DeCara — class valedictorian

Christine Rugg — class salutatorian

Marvin Rosenberry and Dave White salute the photographer on their way to becoming graduates.

You skipped commencement rehearsal because it didn't seem that important. But now the moment has come for you to pay the panic-stricken price . . . "Where do I go NOW?!!!"

"Psssst . . . how much longer is this going to last?"

Heather Konrad, class vice-president, introduces the commencement speakers.

Rod Durbin accepts the Herb Duggan and Pearl Keck Award for outstanding work in the field of instrumental music.

Brad Spotto and Jim Sapola smile as they catch sight of the end of the processional and realize they are FINALLY going to stop playing Pomp and Circumstance.

Cathy Miller and Scott Flynn, followed by Erinn Micklo and John Rugg step out onto the field as the ceremonies begin.

John Rugg steps forward to collect one of the many awards he received during the course of the evening. Call him Connellsville's Michael Jackson.

VISIONS IN WHITE . . . Mimi Nepa, Sandy Shubert (taking it all in stride), Lori Shubert, and Linda Miner walk down the track with songs in their hearts and smiles on their faces.

Barb Nicholson and Jamie Riley offer shy smiles to the photographer.

Kara Sepp, class treasurer, leads the class in the pledge to the flag. Way to go Bubbles!!!

Todd Shmigalsky, Jay Lynn, and Dave "Cool Ray" Sikora serenade the senior class.

Robin Shearer accepts congratulations for her outstanding achievements from Mr. Fausold.

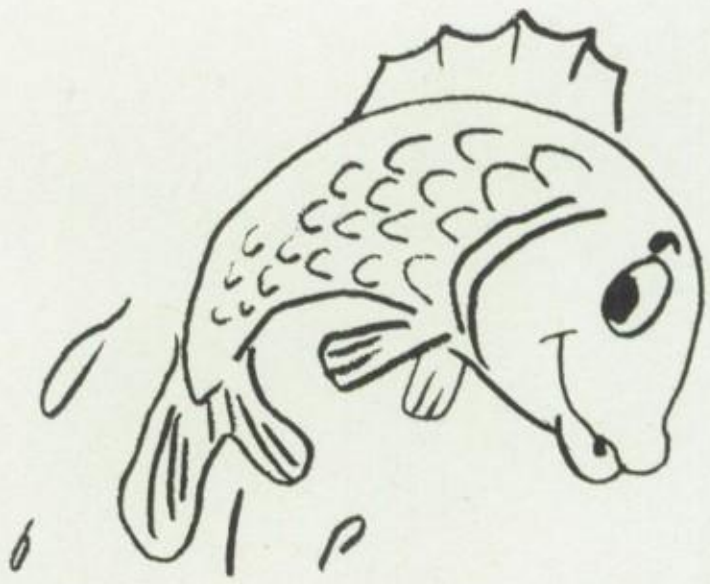
The Class of "84" Is a Class You Can't Ignore!



June 12, 1984

Administration, Faculty, Students, and "1984" Graduates:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks towards all those special people who contributed their efforts to the "1984 Private Eye Falcon Yearbook." Without the following people this book would not have been possible: Erinn Micklo, Dena Sweitzer, Carol Eicher, Geri Feniello, Maurita DeCara, Kara Sepp, Dawn Stepanic, Sandy Shubert, Rhonda Ansell, Toni Maddas, and Cindy Kokot. An extra special thanks belongs to Vicki Blocker, Suzette Chambers, Julie Chorgo, Lori Shubert, and J. C. Reid for his outstanding cover. Above all, Mrs. Rumbaugh gave her many hours of time and dedication. She was always there to offer smiles of encouragement and her talents are very much appreciated! To a very special lady — Thank You! May the Juniors and Sophomores carry on the traditions, but seek the courage to try new endeavors. To the Senior Class of "1984" this yearbook belongs to you! Carry C.A.H.S. close in your heart and remember all those people who have touched your lives. When you open this book to show your children, speak of the happy times because each of us became better people from the mistakes we made along the journey. And remember, never stop believing — ONLY THOSE AFRAID TO TRY HAVE LIMITED THEIR OWN DESTINY!

Sincerely,
Heather L. Konrad, Editor-in-Chief
